

Manheim Historical Society presents the series
Celebrating Our Botanical Heritage

FREE Presentations and Demonstrations (weather permitting)

When? Thursday, September 1, 5:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Where? At the Fasig Log House, 30 E. High St., Manheim

* Making Soap Demonstration by Maryanne Schwartz of Essential Herbal

* Preserving Herbs Presentation by Tina Sams of Essential Herbal including drying herbs for teas and the 10 most useful herbs for staying healthy over the winter.

Essential Herbal Items for Sale on 1st Thursdays: Handmade Soap, Salves, Sniffing Jars, Nature Print Silk Scarves, and Books written by Essential Herbal and more!

* Linda Ferich of the Lancaster Conservancy's

Community Wildlife Habitat Program will provide a native plant display, information about the program and FREE NATIVE PLANTS

* Display of Eighteenth-Century Botanicals and their Uses (FLORIOGRAPHY) by the Manheim Historical Society

Plus FREE HOUSE TOURS AND TWO BLOCK WALKING TOURS

SERIES FINALE!

Sunday, September 18 at 2:00 pm

at the Manheim Railroad Station, 210 S. Charlotte St.

The Community Wildlife Habitat Program presentation by Linda Ferich of the Lancaster Conservancy.

This program offers FREE HOUSE CALLS to help you to get started!

Hungry Hook Native Plant Farm * Plants for Sale

Lisa Doseff, author of the children's book

"Grandma Lisa's Humming, Buzzing, Chirping Garden" will sell and sign books

Plus FREE tours of the station, Henry William Stiegel exhibit, model railroad, cabin car, trolley rides, and Stiegel Glassworks!